NEW DRUG STORE.

I WOULD RESPECTFULLY CALL THE ATTENTION OF THE CITIZENS OF RALEIGH AND VICINITY TO MY

New Drug Store

Just opened at the old Stand of the State National Bank.

Where can be found an entire new stock of select Drugs, Medicines, Chemicals, Patent Medicines, Toilet Articles and Perfumery and all articles usually kept in a first class Drug House.

My aim shall ever be to give satisfaction to my patrons. Nineteen years experience in the business enables me to say that my stock is as well selected as any in the State.

I would especially call the attention of the Physicians of the surrounding country to my stock, and know that I can offer them inducements to give me a trial. No old goods—every article warranted fresh and genuine.

The prescription department will be under my immediate supervision and all prescriptions will be prepared with neatness, accuracy and despatch.

TO OUR READERS.

Upon resuming our editorial duties, we are at a loss how to thank properly our numerous friends for the kind solicitude which they have so repeatedly expressed, and the warm sympathy manifested in so many ways, for our welfare.

We return after an absence of three weeks to find our list of subscribers greatly increased and piles and baskets of letters expressing the deepest sympathy for us personally and the warmest commendations of our course.

These unsought and unbought tokens of kindness and regard, with the consciousness of having always acted from the highest sense of duty and right, will enable us to bear all the wounds which Holden's and Kirk's malice have inflicted or can inflict upon us.

We congratulate you upon the greatest victory ever achieved in the political history of North Carolina. If sympathy of friends can give indemnity for injuries received from foes, then we are amply indemnified, and we are in that frame of mind which could allow Holden and Kirk to go unpunished, so far as we are personally concerned. But to allow great criminals who are detected in crime and in violation of law, to go unpunished, is in effect a cruelty to the good citizens of the State who are observers of the law. Not for revenge but to vindicate the law and to deter evil doers, we expect to try the strong arm of the law upon Holden, Kirk and a portion of the ignorant deluded negroes, who wantonly violated every right dear to freedom and to humanity.

We know the unbounded reliance which you all placed upon the judicial powers of the government. We know how fully you relied upon them. We know how faint, heartless and hopeless you felt when your reliance on that power totally failed through the perfidy of Judge Pearson, and you were given up to the violence and rapacity of Holden and Kirk and their myrmidons.

The Chief Justice unstrung and untuned the whole Constitution, and hung up as on a peg the sacred writ of habeas corpus; and there it hung for thirty days until Judge Brooks forced him to take it down. Many good men despaired but we did not. With the powers of the Federal and State governments combined and marching on us with armed men, drums beating and banners flying, the struggle did seem unequal, if not hopeless and desperate.

Thank God! the people triumphed and against great odds, justice and truth won the victory. How shall we reap the fruits of the victory? This is the important question and shall be answered by and by.

Those who govern the State now have nothing but dominion and conquest for their object, dominion over the mind by bribery and government patronage and over the body by bayonets and arms. Property is ignored and is of no force or weight in the government. State bonds were for a while the circulating medium of the State. Littlefield went about asking for them and laughing at their low price, and after selling them at 50 cts bought them at 10 cents in the dollar. State credit and integrity have been violated. The course even of agriculture has been suspended and retarded by making statesmen of field hands who could neither read nor write. That which is now called and passes for government in North Carolina is a wicked, immoral, impious and oppressive political engine to be operated by arms only for party purposes. The State is military in its principles maxims and practices. The indolent, vicious and wicked have had a long run; at last the people have overtaken them, and demand to be restored to their ancient rights, privileges and immunities. As we labored and contributed to drive out the robbers, we shall now labor to restore order to the household.

OUR PISTOL.

Saturday night we heard an outcry of robber! robber! Looking out of the window we discovered a member of the league in the hands of the police for highway robbery. He seized a peck of meal in the hands of a little boy. The highwayman is now in prison awaiting the justice of the law. On Friday the 5th of August a dozen negroes and white men on the highway with guns cocked, seized upon our person by order of Governor Holden, and with no more authority of law than Gilbert Evans, a Union Leaguer, seized upon the meal. The robbers took from us a fine pistol; they went to our house and took a pistol and two guns from our children. We believe the guns were returned to the boys, but not the pistols.

Can Boyden, Badger and Bailey, counsel for Holden, and Kirk or the Chief Justice himself, make any distinction between these two robberies. Evans was as much authorized to seize the meal as the twelve robbers were to seize the pistols. Restitution has been made of the meal and Evans is in prison. No restitution has been made of the pistols and the twelve robbers and the Governor are at large.

Governor, give us more of your justice and less of your "peace." We will give the Governor five dollars to have our pistols returned.

THE MURDERERS OF STEPHENS.

The developments which are being made, go strongly to confirm our previous impressions, either that Stephens' death was the result of personal hate and private advantage having no connection with politics at all, or that it was connected by the Radicals of Caswell and Raleigh, for the purpose of creating the outcry against Ku Klux and to justify the calling out of Holden's State Troops.

The course pursued by Holden, Kirk, Pearson, Dick, Settle, Boyden and Dick Badger in reference to that irreproachable man, F. A. Wiley, of Caswell, furnishes one of the strongest evidences of political persecution—persecution even to the death, if possible,—ever before exhibited in North Carolina. The professed object appears to be to convict Wiley of the murder of Stephens. This they know is impossible.—There is not a particle of evidence to connect him with the murder of Stephens. All who have read the full evidence in the case of Mr. Wiley as published in the SENTINEL, know that there is not a particle of evidence against him. And yet, it is palpable, from the conduct of these men, that their purpose is to justify Holden, Kirk & Co. in some way, and if possible to screen the real murderers of Stephens.

We are told that while Kirk was arresting the innocent, respectable citizens of Caswell, a man of good standing in that county went to Kirk and told him, that a certain man, naming him, had told him, that he was within three feet of Stephens when he was killed—that this man had made other statements to another man, going to show that this man was a party to the death of Stephens. That man is a Radical, and Kirk and Holden have refused to arrest him to this day.

It is palpable, that the plan of killing Stephens must have been concocted by an accomplished villain, a man versed in deeds of the highest and most daring crime. No ordinary citizens, such as were arrested by Kirk, could ever have planned or executed a scheme which could have been concealed so perfectly. The statements made by Burgen, Kirk's Lieutenant Colonel, in regard to Stephens' murder and his knowledge of Caswell, connect him to some extent with the affair. It required a villain as daring and as merciless and as experienced in crime as Burgen, to have accomplished it.

Why have they not in their efforts to find out the murderers of John W. Stephens, enquired who killed Mrs. Stephens in her own bed twelve months before in the house of her son John W. Stephens? Why have they not enquired for the bloody pillow upon which she was killed, which proved that she was killed on her bed, but which pillow could not be found afterwards. We are told that pillow will be forth-coming now, if called for. Who killed Mrs. Stephens we ask? The same mysterious hands and acute mind which planned and executed her death, and yet concealed the murderer, are the same hands and the same mind that planned and executed the murder of John W. Stephens. And yet Wiley's persecutors are so bent upon pursuing an innocent man out of sheer partisan malice [illegible] and labor to hunt down F. A. Wiley, of Caswell. O shame, shame, where is thy blush?

BURGEN—KIRK'S LT. COLONEL.

From what we have learned from various sources, Burgen must be one of the most daring and reckless villains we have heard of. We learn that he has repeatedly said he came to North Carolina with Kirk solely to make money—that he did not care a d— for any thing else. Therefore in arresting men, he did not care whether they were charged with crime or not, but he wanted to take fellows who had plenty of money or whose friends had—that he was working for a fat fee, and to get black mail out of them. He remarked when he arrested Adolphus Moore, that he had gotten a rich prize—was rich himself and had rich kin. It is said that he has forced black mail out of many, and even the negroes we are told charge him with stealing their watches, money &c. A paper published near his home, stated some days ago, that his family had just received from him a remittance of $500.

This man, though Kirk and Banner and Yates are cruel enough, seems to be the Nero of the crowd, and the one who is charged with the hangings and cruelties which have been committed.

It is stated by persons who have been associated with him for the last month, that Burgen has avowed that he had been in this State frequently within the last twelve months, that he was entirely familiar with Alamance and Caswell, and was familiar with the particulars of Stephens' murder. We are told that when he arrived at Yanceyville with the prisoners, on placing some of them in the room in which Stephens was killed, he said, this is the room in which Stephens was murdered.—Some one seeing blood on the floor, remarked, this must be the place where he was murdered, he replied "no! yonder is the spot where he was murdered," pointing to the precise place and described the particulars of his position &c. He is a rare bird and we hope he will get his reward before he leaves North Carolina.

JUDGE KERR'S CANE.

When Judge Kerr was arrested by the Rev. Major Yates, he had a cane in his hand. It was valued not for its gold mounting but as a present from his long since departed venerated father. The Judge and the cane are so identified with each other that the one seems lost without the other.

If the pious robber will restore the cane we will pay him ten dollars for his magnanimity!

Pending the investigation of the case of F. A. Wiley, Esq. of Caswell, he has been sustained not only by his immediate able Counsel and the witnesses for the defence and his associate prisoners, but by the presence and kind attentions of his neighbors and friends, such as Messrs. Williamson, Bowe, Col. Wm. P. Graves of Danville, E. Brock Holden and others that we are not now able to name. Indeed every Caswell man of any respectability believes him an innocent and injured man, and are his firm friends.

BENCH WARRANT CASES BEFORE JUDGE PEARSON.

STATE VS. FELIX ROAN.

SATURDAY, August 27, 1870.

The Court opened at 9 o'clock, A. M.

Chief Justice Pearson and Associate Justices Dick and Settle on the Bench.

The same counsel appearing as in the Wiley case.

Anderson Graves, (col.) was first examined. First heard that Stephens was killed on Sunday morning; went to town that day; saw the body in the room. Lived with Mr. Roan on his plantation. On the Monday before Stephens was killed had heard Mr. Roan say that Stephens would not live much more than a week or two longer; heard Mr. Roan say on the following Saturday that "after to-day I'll vote for Stephens." Was in the field at work at the time. Roan often talked to him (the witness) about Stephens; didn't like him, said he stole chickens. It was after breakfast in the field when he said "that after to-day I'll vote for Stephens." Had promised to give holiday that day but did not do it, said wait until dinner; when dinner came told them to go on with their work and they continued until an hour by sun; asked Mr. Roan again and he told them that he would go and bring them news Monday. Monday when he returned said Stephens was dead and in hell. Roan was sent after Mr. Wiley on Sunday to bring him before the jury of inquest. Never saw Wiley at Roan's house; never heard them talking together.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Been living with Roan all this year; work for wages, paid from $6 to $7 per month. Mr. Roan objected to my going to town on Saturday, never went without Mr. Roan's consent; went once without it, after the soldiers came. Heard Sunday that Stephens was dead. Roan said the Monday before, at the plant bed, that Stephens would not live but a week or two longer. Did not know the reason why Mr. Roan said it. Roan's farm is about a mile and a half or two miles from town. Roan would talk to him about Stephens when speaking about politics, asking how he was going to vote, &c.

He and Jim Graves and Ned Graves went to town the Friday before the murder; Mr. Lewis Mason sent a message by him (the witness) to Mr. Roan, telling him to come to town the next day by 1 o'clock; delivered the message next morning to Mr. Roan. When in the field that morning after breakfast, Mr. Roan told him that he would vote for Mr. Stephens after that day. [Here witness repeated his testimony about the promised holiday, &c.]

Roan employed some six or seven hands. Remembered the names of Albert Williamson, Ned Graves, Jim Graves, Sam Graves, Lindy Chandler, Huldy Chandler and Francis Roan. All were in the field but were not present at the conversation.—Don't recollect any one being near to him and Mr. Roan but Albert Williamson; remembered this for he spoke to Albert about the conversation in the presence of Jim and Ned Graves. Told it at town, told Ben Shaw; don't recollect telling any one else. Didn't go before the inquest; didn't go in the Court House except once in the room where the murder was committed. Was at a grocery and a black man came for him, went out and a soldier took him in charge and went to the Court House, stayed there all night, was questioned; was told to tell the truth; heard some one say that if he did not tell the truth they would hang him, could'nt tell who it was that said it; had been drinking; didn't know whether they put down his answer in writing.—Knew Col. Kirk; didn't remember Kirk saying that if he (Kirk) put a rope around his neck the truth would come. No one put a rope around him; was cautioned to tell the truth [illegible] and many threats made against him. Uncle —— Gunn said that he knew that he (the witness) knew something of this business and that he had to tell it.

Mr. Roan was in the habit of going to his father's every Saturday and returning Sunday evening. Didn't know anything about his (the witness) being indicted for stealing but had given security for his appearance at Court; because he had been accused of stealing money from Mr. Groom's grocery. L'n Graves stood his security; gave the security at the last Court; was accused of stealing money out of the draw at the store. Knew Mr. Groom was some relative to Mr. Stephens but didn't know what; was charged with the stealing Court before last. (Here counsel for the prosecution objected to the nature of the latter questions and was sustained by the Chief Justice.)

Was not in the habit of going to town every Saturday, would not go sometimes in two or three weeks.

Ned Graves, (col.) was next examined. Was living with Mr. Roan when Stephens was murdered. Had no conversation with Mr. Roan on Saturday; never had any in reference to Stephens.

Chief Justice.—Did Mr. Roan ever say anything to you about Stephens?

Witness.—No, sir.

Chief Justice.—Why did you come here.

Witness.—I was taken up Saturday and brought down here.

Have heard Mr. Roan say that Stephens was a grand rascal that he had barns burnt up; this was sometime before Stephens was killed.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Never heard Mr. Roan tell Anderson that he would be willing to vote for Stephens after that day, all that he heard Mr. Roan say was that Stephens was a grand rascal and was having all the barns burnt up, this was about the time of the second ploughing.

RE-DIRECT.

Anderson told him that he heard Roan say on Saturday morning that he (Roan) would vote for Stephens as he (Stephens) was as good as any of them. Anderson wanted to go to the meeting, had worked "mighty smart" all the week to get off but did not go, worked until near night. Anderson said Mr. Roan had said speaking of Stephens the d—d rascal, he would vote for him as soon as any of them.

Jim Graves. Works with Mr. Roan.—Heard Mr. Roan say a week or two before Stephens was killed that he (Stephens) was a d—d rascal and ought to be killed.—Never heard him talk to Anderson Graves about it, heard Anderson on Saturday say that he had heard Roan say that after that day he (Roan) would vote for Stephens, damn him.

Chief Justice.—How old are you?

Witness.—Seventeen.

Chief Justice.—How long have you been working for Mr. Roan?

Witness.—Was hired by him last February.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Am paid wages by the month; went to town to see the soldiers; told Mr. Roan to charge for the day. When at town went to Mr. Roan's mother's, and while there Mr. Roan came up and after taking off his pistol and laying it down he took the strap in one hand and caught the collar of my coat in the other and said, "damn you, go home." Kept telling him to charge me for the day. Mr. Roan's mother came out and told him to let go, that I would go home. He took his hand off and I went up the street. Did not return. Saw Mr. Roan next morning at the farm; he was mad and said he ought to kick me off the farm; went off with Ned Graves. Anderson told me and Ned Graves about Mr. Roan saying he would vote for Stephens after that day, damn him. Did not know what caused Mr. Roan to say, some weeks before, that Stephens was a damn rascal and ought to be killed; heard him say it to Anderson. Was examined by soldiers; was carried before "Major" Yates; didn't see anybody writing when he was talking to Yates.—Jim Graves was in the room. Albert Williamson and Ned Graves afterwards came in. Anderson Graves was in Raleigh; was examined last Saturday; knew Col. Kirk; never went to Kirk to tell about Mr. Roan. Was in town when the soldiers came. Did not have Mr. Roan's permission; went to see the soldiers, went with Ned Graves; left the field as if going to breakfast. Mr. Roan was angry the next morning.

Bob Shaw, colored, was examined. Saw Anderson Graves on Sunday morning. He (Graves) told him that Mr. Roan had said that Stephens should not live a week longer, and that on Saturday he said that he would vote for Stephens after that day.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Had known Anderson six or ten years; didn't know much about his character; some say he will lie and some say he will tell the truth. Had heard some say he will steal, some say he will not, therefore could not say anything positive about his character.

Albert Williamson col., was the next witness examined. Lived with Mr. Roan at the time Stephens was killed. Heard Mr. Roan tell Anderson as they were going to the field, that he (Roan) would vote for Stephens, d—n him—he is as good as any of them—Anderson said Mr. Roan said he would vote for him "after that day, damn him." This was the day of the murder.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Heard Mr. Roan say "I will vote for Stephens, damn him, he is as good as any of them." Never hard the expression "after to-day" (Saturday,) though Anderson said Mr. Roan fit put it that way.—He and Ned Graves and Jim Graves had agreed to go to town to see the soldiers—was ploughing that day, turned the horses loose in the field an went to the house, when Mr. Roan objected to his going and his mother advised him not to go; did not go. Jim and Ned went; Mr. Roan was angry because the others had gone to town. We had been plouging and the women hilling tobacco.

Jesse Griffith exained. Lives in Caswell; is Sheriff of th county, been so for ten years; has know Anderson Graves for ten or fifteen years; saw him while a slave and his character was such was bad and has continued bad since becoming free—his character is bad for lying and stealing; is considered a shrew fellow. Has known Mr. Roan since he was a little boy, character always good; never heard anything against him.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Was not aware that Roan is a strong partisan.

By Judge Dick: How does he treat his hands?

Answer: With kindness.

Judge Dick. Does they stay with him?

Answer: Yes sir.

Jas. C. Williams examined: Always lived in Caswell; knew Anderson Graves for a long time; he always borne a bad character both as slave and a freeman; character bad for lying and stealing. Knew Mr. Roan; character good. Mr. Roan is in the habit of staying very closely upon his farm, his hand seemed to like him, has no difficulty in obtaining them.

Brice Haralson, examined. Has known Anderson Graves a good many years, he belonged to Jerry Graves who lived a short distance of [illegible] (the witness). Anderson among whites at blacks; bad for lying and stealing. Knew Mr. Roan since he was a boy; he has the habit of staying very closely at h farm; is lively in his disposition, has n meddled in politics; never heard him tating about barns being burnt.

J. C. Pinnix exained: Living in Yanceyville eighteen yrs; known Anderson Graves for ten or 1 ears, character always bad for both honer and truth. Known Mr. Roan before he (the witness) was married, eighteen years o. Knew his general character. Has be staying closely at his farm, unusually; for a young man. Seen him most always church. He (the witness) was in the bit of attending political meetings but ner saw Mr. Roan at one, though he (witn) was not at the one on the day Stephens was killed. Mr. Roan is a young man of ocation and intelligence, was at Chapel H.

At the close of the timony, Mr. Roan made the following statement:

He never had any conversation with the boy Anderson about Mr. Stephens. He never left home during the week and only went to town to go to church on Sunday, he generally went Saturday evening; he never attended any the political meetings held in the count and admits that he had some trouble in his hands on the day the so'diers came Yanceyville.

On the conclusion of Mr. Roan's statement neither counsel saring to submit remarks, the Court proded to take up the case of

STATE VS. JOSE FOWLER.

The counsel for prosecution stated that they had no furr evidence to offer in the case, when the following testimony was introduced by the fence:

Jas. C. Williamson examined. Knows the accused all his; character good. Don't know when he left town on Saturday evening; saw For in a buggy with J. G. Lee that evening out 3 miles from town; joked him ab going to see his sweetheart. Suppose must have been about 5 o'clock wh left town; when about leaving saw Fowler at the pump watering his horse.

CROSS EXINED.

Never knew of a difficulty between Fowler and Stephens ever heard of any; didn't know of any br feelings between them. Didn't know wler to be a strong partizan, though he b him to be a democrat.

W. B. Bowe, exami and testified as to the good character accused had al was borne and whenes examined by the prosecution as to anyficulty having occurred between the sed and the deceased, stated that he dinot know of any quarrel ever taking je between them.

J. K. Pinnix was mined, and gave in substance the same tmony as Mr. Bowe.

Henry Stephens, (bro to the deceased,) was examined. Brother and Fowler had a difficulty ou wive months ago; didn't know what it's bout, supposed it was a political mat, couldn't say for certain what it was on. Day of the quarrel saw the cro ather, and then saw his brother wa of. Didn't know that the accused was extreme man.

CROSS EXAMD.

Had understood th Fowler had some dispute with the deced about political matters, don't know w he learned it; had understood th he (Fowler) had thrown stones the deceased.—Never heard of difficulty since. Fowler has been ng h Yanceyville ever since.

Stephen Lawson (e examined, never heard anything particular about the quarrel, was not there; only heard of it.

Geo. Bowe, (col.) examined, was in town when the quarrel occurred, went to the place where the crowd was gathered; heard Fowler tell Stephens he was a rascal. Stephens told Fowler to let him alone, he was going home and did not wish to have a difficulty.

Chief Justice Pearson: Did the deceased draw a pistol? Witness, did not see the deceased draw a pistol. Fowler had his coat off but did not see him throw any rocks.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Difficulty took place over a year ago, could not recollect how long; thinks about spring before last; it occurred on the lower part of the public square about dusk; don't know how it commenced or what it was about.

On closing the evidence Mr. Fowler made the following statement:

Lives in Yanceyville and is a Coachmaker by trade. Was in charge of the business of B. Lowndes, who is a blind man; have had charge of the business for the last two years. Was in the Court House at the meeting in the morning, stayed about 15 minutes, left and went to dinner. After dinner went back to the meeting and remained about 15 minutes.

On the conclusion of the statement, neither side wishing to make any comments, the case was submitted and the Court adjourned until 3 o'clock P. M.

FOR THE IMPROVED

"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."

THE "UTLEY PRESS" So well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Allsop & Co., Newbern, with improvements.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity, economy and durability, astonishes all who see it, and the more so, that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 1¼ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 190,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN EIGHT MINUTES, WEIGHING FROM 400 to 550 lbs.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint. It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.

I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.

Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet: Size Bale 4½ feet-x26x28 inches; wt. Bale 400 to 550 lbs.

T. H. BROOKS, Esq.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press," I purchased from you last season, and consider it to be the best Press I ever saw. Having packed bales to weigh from five hundred and ninety (590) to six hundred and twelve pounds (612.) I consider it the best and most durable Press I ever saw used, and can cheerfully recommend its use to the farmers of North Carolina.

Yours truly, C. W. BYNUM.

FRANKLINTON, N. C., April 16th, 1870.

MR. THOMAS H. BROOKS: Dear Sir:—Yours of 13th instant inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" is to hand, and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the pains upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with.

Yours very respectfully, JAS. B. WILDER.

RIVER LAWN, CUMBERLAND Co., N. C., April 22nd, 1870.

THOS. H. BROOKS, Esq: Dear Sir:—In reply to yours of the 13th asking how I was pleased with the Utley Press I used last season, I would say that it gave entire satisfaction.

Respectfully yours, CHAS. H. BLOCKER.

HILLSBOROUGH, June 7th, 1870.

T. H. BROOKS, Esq.—Dear Sir:—Your Press is working to my entire satisfaction. It works well and gives entire satisfaction. I regard it as the best Hay Press I have seen.

Respectfully, E. H. FOOTE.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 18th, 1870.

T. H. BROOKS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press" I purchased from you last season. I packed my own crop of cotton, also other crops for my neighbors, making in all one hundred bales. I consider it superior in all respects to any Press I have ever seen and that it is every thing the patentee represents. I packed bales weighing from four hundred and five hundred and ninety-seven pounds.

Yours truly, W. T. HOWLE.

TO OUR ADVERTISERS.

We are compelled to ask the indulgence of our advertisers for a few days. We are so crowded we cannot do by them as we desire. We will make up for all short comings.

See W. C. Stronach & Co's. advertisements of Fruit Trees, Bacon, Corn Meal, Oats, &c., &c.

TRAINED HORSES.—Professor Antrem and his young son, will exhibit on Fayetteville Street at one o'clock to-morrow two Horses said to be the best trained animals in the world. Every one come and see without cost.

Messrs. Martin & Finch, General Agents of the Widows & Orphans Life Insurance Company of New York, have removed their office from the Express Office to one of the front rooms at the Yarbrough House.

See Mr. Fasnach's jewelry advertisement. Mr. F. is a native of Geneva, Switzland, and a thorough workman. He has been in this country for some time and a citizen of Henderson, Granville County, N. C., for several years. He is entirely reliable and worthy of patronage.

CLUBS.—We are under great obligation to our friends for their energetic efforts in increasing our subscription lists. Clubs have already commenced coming in, and we have assurances of many more now being made up in various parts of the State. On Friday last we received four clubs from as many different offices, amounting to 108 subscribers; on Saturday a second club from Edgecombe, of 50, which make 105 from that county within ten days. Let them come; we have room for any number; we want to enter five thousand new subscribers on our books by the first of October. We shall, as soon as practicable, refurnish our office with new type and fixtures, and result no labor to give our subscribers the worth of their money.

Subscriptions received at this office to assist in buying a new Press and other fixtures for the SENTINEL office.—Standard of this morning.

Now, that the Treasury is empty, and chances for pillage in State bonds have "played out," you want to try that game, do you?

ANOTHER DEVELOPMENT.—A gentleman of undoubted veracity gave us, a day or two ago, the following information:

[illegible] by the name of Stanage, was a private in Gaunt's company of Holden's State troops, was out in the neighborhood of the gentleman alluded to, not long since, and stated to the gentleman and others, that four or five of Kirk's men had told him that, while in Alamance, Burgin had arrested a man and, as he did in some other cases, put a rope round his neck and drew him up to a tree to make him "confess."—The rope was too tight, or he was allowed to hang too long, and when taken down life was extinct. They tried in vain to restore him, and he was buried near the tree to which he was hung.

This is the statement made to us; we give the names necessary to an investigation if it be desired by the authorities, and there we let it rest; suggesting, however, if an investigation be attempted, it be a full and fair one.

WARREN COURT.—Superior Court for Warren county was in session last week, Judge Watts presiding with his usual dignity. The criminal docket was small; the only important case was that of a negro woman, Ann Rocks, for the murder of the child of Rev. T. B. Rocks, in 1865, which was taken up on Friday.

L. C. Edwards, Esq., late candidate for the Senate in Granville and Person, addressed the people in a congratulatory speech, on Tuesday. He is sure of making a successful exposition of the frauds by which he was defeated.

Our informant states that the people of Warren have determined to have a grand barbecue and mass jubilee, at Warrenton, on Saturday, Sept., 3rd, preceded by a ball on Friday night.

A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR.—We have a quick eye for the unique and a strong appreciation of the beautiful. When these two characteristics meet in the same object, that object elicits our intense admiration. Such admiration we have recently felt for a beautiful head of hair. We may get our own scanty locks pulled for speaking of it, but we'll risk it.

The head of hair we alluded to belongs to a young lady; (herself supremely beautiful,) her form faultless, features regular, complexion faultless, manners gentle and captivating. But her hair is her crowning glory. It is the most abundant we ever saw on the head of woman, and is a yard and a quarter in length. When shaken down and spread around her shoulders, it forms a complete mantle reaching far below the waist, and when done up, it is equal in bulk to the highest of chignons that we see on the streets.

We understand that one of our young men—but, perhaps, we had better not tell what we know about him.

CLEAR AS THE DAY is that balmy fluid which is taking the place of the pernicious compounds hitherto used for dyeing the hair. PERALON'S VITALIA, OR SALVATION FOR THE HAIR, is as cloudless as "the light in beauty's eyes," and it darkens gray hair to any shade from golden brown to perfect ebony.

CORRECTION.

By mistake, the name of our friend, Dr. John L. Williamson, was inserted instead of Dr. Clendenen's, in our speech, as using "cuss words" with Lt. Banner on the march from Yanceyville. Dr. Williamson is a Churchman and does not swear. By apologizing for one Doctor, we, by no means, intend to upbraid the other. Uncle Toby would call it no bad oath to curse Banner. As the story of the vulgar parson, Lawrence Sterne, of Lafevre will show.

Lafevre was sick and could not march.

"And please your honor, said the Corporal, he will never march but to his grave. He shall march, cried my uncle Toby, he shall march to his regiment. He cannot stand it, said the Corporal. He shall be supported, said my uncle Toby. He'll drop at last said the Corporal, and what will become of his boy? He shall not drop, said my uncle Toby, firmly. A well-a day, do what we can for him, said Trim, maintaining his point, the poor soul will die. He shall not die, by G—, cried my uncle Toby. The recording spirit which flew up to Heaven's Chancery, with the oath, blushed as he gave it in, and the recording angel, as he wrote it down, dropped a tear upon the word and blotted it out forever."

With this evidence before us we say, there could have been no record made against Dr. Clendenen for cursing Banner.

WHO GARBLED THAT LETTER?

One of the wickedest, lowest and meanest, of the wicked, low and mean acts, committed by the conspirators against the peace and liberty of North Carolina, none can claim diabolical pre-eminence over that letter garbling between Tourgee, Holden, Abbott and the New York Tribune, and we are confident the Tribune didn't do it. The question is, Who is the guilty party? Did Tourgee originally write the infamous lies which he afterward tried to smoothe over by mildly charging the Tribune's compositors with making typographical errors?—We think he is fully capable of the crime; but he says he did not do it; and the Tribune having pleaded "not guilty," it brings into strong suspicion those through whose hands it passed between Tourgee and the Tribune.

The New York Times, Republican, comments as follows, on the nefarious and rascally piece of business:

"We recommend the Washington Chronicle, which extols Gov. Holden's course in North Carolina, and becomes almost crazy in its reproduction of Ku Klux outrages, to read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest the statement of the Tribune in regard both to Holden and the Ku Klux. Just before the people of North Carolina voted—at a moment when it seemed desirable to convince the North that Holden's man, Kirk, and his troops really had other purpose than the control of the ballot boxes by a display of bayonets—the Tribune published a letter filled with startling statements, purporting to have been addressed by Judge Tourgee to Senator Abbott. The list of Ku Klux outrages therein contained was awful. But Judge Tourgee protests that by the addition of a cypher to his figures, the number of cases of outrage has fraudulently multiplied tenfold. Ten were converted into a hundred, and so on. As the letter was received from Gov. Holden, the Tribune prop—

Whatever part Holden played in the disgraceful business, we cite the fact mentioned by our contemporary as illustrative of the means employed by partisan sensationmongers to excite Northern feeling against the South."

HECTORING.—As Mr. Thomas B. Terrell, an engineer on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, one of the most quiet and inoffensive men in the State, was passing through the Capitol Square on Sunday, going for a physician to his sick child, he passed at the North gate four of Holden's State Troop officers. Just as he was opposite them, he heard one of them exclaim, excitedly, "damn them, they ought all to be hung." He turned his face toward the group, still passing on, when one of them said in the most menacing and hectoring tone and manner, "go on, G—d d—n you, don't look at me." (These were some of Holden's lambs.)

CHANGE OF SCHEDULE.—We learn incidentally that a change in the schedule of the mail trains on the North Carolina, and the Raleigh and Gaston Railroads, will go into operation on Thursday next, Sept. 1st. We are not advised as to particulars, but learn that the train from the West will arrive here about 7 o'clock, A. M. at which time the R. & G. train will leave going North, and that the eastern and R. & G. trains will arive about 6 p. m. at which time the Western train will leave.

For the Sentinel.

At a meeting of the farmers of St. Mathews township, Wake county, at Wilder's store, on Saturday, August 27th, an organization, to be known as the "St. Mathews Farmers Club," was formed and the following officers elected: President, Maj. G. H. Wilder; 1st Vice President, Maj. B. C. Manly; 2nd Vice President, Richard B. Seawell, Esq; 3rd Vice President, Dr. J. B. Dodd; 4th Vice President, J. R. Rogers, Esq; Secretary, Clinton W. Williams, Esq; Treasurer, A. T. Bates, Esq; Corresponding Secretary, Capt. R. B. Saunders.

Regular meetings will be held on Thursday preceding the fourth Saturday of each month, at Wilder's store.

At the next regular meeting there will be a trial of the comparative merits of the two horse Watt & Brinley plows, and other machinery; and at each subsequent meeting farming implements of different descriptions will be tested; at which all interested are invited to attend.

Manufactories desiring their implements tested by the Club, will notify and apply to the Corresponding Secretary, Capt. R. B. Saunders.

The object of this organization is the encouragement of agriculture and those arts and sciences which tend to increase the profit and pleasure of agricultural labor, and to render home life on the plantation attractive and happy.

An essay will be prepared and read at each meeting by some person on such subject as the Club shall designate.

G. H. WILDER, Pres.

C. W. WILLIAMS, Sec'y.

After the meeting adjourned, those present (about 35) were invited to partake of M. J. Wilder's hospitality at his dwelling, the abundant liquids and solids of which were enjoyed by all.

DIED,

At Woodworth, Granville Co. N. C., on the evening of 18th August 18[illegible], of a violent and unyielding attack of twenty hours illness, JOHN BEAN'S aged three years three months and 8 days, son of Robert H. and Pattie H. Read.

Of Typhoid FEVER, at his residence, near Louisburg, on Wednesday the 24th inst. MR. JUNIUS BALLARD, in the twenty-eighth year of his age.

From early boyhood Mr. BALLARD was distinguished among his acquaintances for his upright and moral deportment and for a number of years he has been an humble Christian and a pious, useful member of the Methodist Church. During his protracted illness, the frequent and anxious enquiries made about him by all classes, white and colored, attested, how universally he was beloved and in the death, his family, the church of which he was a devoted member and the community in which he lived and to which he gave promise of so much usefulness, have sustained a loss painfully felt.

He left a wife, mother, father, sisters, brothers and many relatives and friends who, while they mourn his loss to them, rest in the well assured faith that he has gone to the good man's reward, in that blessed land,

"Where the rivers of pleasure flow o'er the bright plains
And the noontide of joy eternally reigns."

May they so live as he has lived, that when death comes, they may be with him in that happy land and feast with him forever on the smiles of a blessed Saviour.

Saturday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Aug 27.—Attorney General Akerman decides that he has nothing to do with the conflict between State and Federal laws regarding voting in the States. Parties must appeal to the courts. The question at issue traverses the right of Confederates to vote in Missouri.

Senator Abbott and ex-Senator Clingman, of North Carolina, are here.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, August 27.—The reported imprisonment of Madame Archet is untrue. She is at Bretagne.

The Prince Imperial is at Bethel, twenty-three miles from Meaux.

Bazaine's official report puts the French loss at Regonville at 13,000.

The representatives of France, England, and Prussia, have signed the Belgian neutrality treaty.

The Times, reviewing Prussian resources, says that three armies of reserves have been formed to await events—one on the Rhine, under the Duke of Mecklenburg; one at Berlin, under General Canstam; and one in Silesia, under General Tumelmurg.

The movement of the Prussians along the Aube seems to have been arrested. They are fusing back on St. Dizier.

Large bodies of infantry are passing through Luneville and Bayon.

According to the French report 15,000, but according to the Prussian report, 20,000 French soldiers are disabled by the hospital and typhus fevers.

The Prussians are intensely excited about shooting by the French on a flag of truce.

The famous cigar steamer, probably Winans', passed Lower to-day, going eastward.

The Prussians say that half the journey to Paris has been accomplished, and all the obstructions have been left behind.

The English government, while its militia and volunteers are only half armed, ships 40,000 rifles to the continent at the same time the English people send hat and bandages for the wounded.

The movement to aid the French and German wounded is become universal in England.

The Northern movement of MacMahon is fully confirmed.

A fight occurred yesterday near Montmedy between the advanced detachments of the French and Prussian armies. The Prussians repulsed a large reinforcement sent by the northern railway from Paris to MacMahon's army. The tactics of MacMahon appear to be to gather up his broken corps and thereby swell his ranks; then sweep along the borders of Belgium, avoiding a battle, and make a junction with the army of Metz from the North if successful, he will cut off the communications of the enemy at St. Arnold. This is supposed to be the policy that Count Palikao hinted at in the Corps Legislatif a few days ago.

The Prussians captured General Montaubon, who has heretofore been reported as wounded.

A meeting has been held at Siges to form an association to aid the wounded, at which a strong sympathy for France was manifested.

Henry Labouchere writes to the Telegraph from Paris that the Emperor has actually been suspended. His Cabinet remains in power only because its chief is thought to possess administrative capacity. The Corps Legislatif is supreme, but is conscious that it lacks the national confidence, owing to the manner of its election.

General Trochu and the committee of defence are absolutely ruling France.

The Marquis of Hertford, who recently died in Paris, bequeathed a large sum to the Prince Imperial.

The Prussians will send no more flags of truce.

The Prussians are still endeavoring to divert the river Ill from Strasburg. If they succeed the most will be left dry.

BERLIN, Aug. 27.—A note from Berlin has been addressed to the Prussian Envoy in regard to the flag of truce asking a cessation of hostilities to bury the dead which France refused, and the flag was insulted three times. Prussia therefore declares its resolution to offer no diplomatic negotiations to the French people until the empire is declared to be at an end.

PARIS, August 27.—The assertion of the correspondent of the Daily News that the Garde Mobile is composed of children and of 18 years of age, is untrue. Every member is from 20 to 25.

The morning journals persist in reporting a serious engagement within the past few days, resulting in favor the French.

There are now in Paris 15,000 sheep, 40,000 hogs and 25,000 beeves. In case of a siege the authorities will prevent unreasonable prices for the necessaries of life.

Several mortgages were executed to-day.

The Prussian approach causes intense excitement.

Dispatches from the various provinces announce a sudden an immense increase of volunteering [illegible] of the capital.

The railway stations at Rheims were recently pillaged by bummers. The baggage stolen has since been disposed of to various dealers here. The value of the property taken is immense.

The Presse affirms that Stenetz is cut off from Frederick Charles and driven northward; also that the Prussians were decidedly checked at Sissonne.

The garrison of Strasbourg yesterday made a sortie and captured a convoy with cattle and some munitions. The city still makes a vigorous resistance. A large body of Germans, supposed to be landwehr, passed through Nancy, Vancouvers and Jouville last Saturday. The reported appearance of Prussian scouts at Chalons Thierry is not confirmed. Detachments are reported to-day at Sissonne, Vareas, Verdun, Palasburg, Barle Duc, Sheney, and on the railroad between Soissons and Rheims.

MacMahon's main army is at Stenay. The Emperor is at Remonville and the Prince Imperial at Bethel.

The Prussians pushed their reconnoissance as far as Montmedy.

La Liberte of to-day says: "The General of the army on the Rhine, arrived in Paris last night and had an interview with the Empress and returned immediately. It may be expected in a day or two that a brilliant combat will take place." The La Liberte adds: "A personage who saw the Emperor on the 25th affirms that the armies of B. Laine and MacMahon are near each other.

The Prince Royal slept night before last at Chalons. The Prefecture in the case of the siege of Paris the new government officials other than the ministers, will go to Tours, Bourges and Lyons on Thursday.

The Prussians captured 16 guns, and two battalions of Garde Mobile were annihilated by the Prussian cavalry this evening. French officers and 800 soldiers were captured. The Prussians had one Major severely and three troopers slightly wounded.

The following intelligence is published: On the 25th at 9 A. M., Verdun was attacked by the Prussians 10,000 strong, commanded by the Crown Prince. After an ardent combat of three hours, during which 300 shells were thrown into the city, the Prussians having suffered heavily by our artillery, were repulsed. Their loss was considerable. The Garde Mobile served our guns. We have five killed and 12 wounded.

Monday Evening Dispatches.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, August 29.—A special to the Evening Post from Paris dated last night says that MacMahon's communication with Metz and Bazaine is assured and confirms the French victory at Steny and Verdun. "The appearance of the enemy between Rheims and Sedanne indicate that the wave of the invaders will become upon us by the valleys Aisne and Oise.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, August 29.—A French war steamer anchored here and refuses to obey the official notice to leave.

The Emperor is at Beathenville, 25 miles North of Chalons. MacMahon is near Stenay. The Uhlans occupy Mantmedy. The Prussians are at Suippes, 14 miles North of Chalons. The Prussians are in the Valley of Aisne and [illegible] at Sommepy.

Ten thousand Prussians and Saxon Hussars, wounded are shut up in Metz. The typhoid fever is raging. The Pall Mall Gazette says the investing Army [illegible] Thierry is not changed. Detachments are reported to-day at Sissonne, Vareas, Verdun, Palasburg, Barle Duc, Sheney, and on the railroad between Soissons and Rheims.

MacMahon's main army is at Stenay. The Emperor is at Remonville and the Prince Imperial at Bethel.

CHOLERA.

HOW TO DEAL IT.

At the commencement of the Diarrhœa which always precedes an attack of the Cholera, take a teaspoonful of the Pain Killer in sugar and water. Bathe, if convenient, and then bathe freely the stomach and bowels with the Pain Killer also. Should the diarrhœa or cramps continue, repeat the dose every hour or fifteen minutes until the patient is relieved. In extreme cases, two or more teaspoonfuls may be given at a dose.

The Pain Killer, as an internal remedy, has no equal. In cases of Cholera, Summer Complaints, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Asthma, cures in one night by taking it internally, and bathing with it freely. Its action is like magic, when externally applied to Old Sores, Burns, Scalds, and Sprains. For Sick Headache and Toothache don't fail to try it. In short, it is a PAIN KILLER.

Directions accompany each bottle.

The Pain Killer is sold by all dealers in Medicines.

Prices, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1 per bottle.

CHARLOTTE N. C.

THE EQUITABLE

HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

In New Business (sum secured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1860 it was the 26th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 9th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 5th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" after THEY HAVE BEGUN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT MEAN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with its General Agents.

PUFF OF SATISFACTION.—Nothing is more grateful than the solace of a good-flavored and free-smoking cigar. Such are Mehegan's Bankers, the best cigars for their price in the country. They have become so universally popular in North Carolina, in Raleigh particularly, that all the inveterate smokers are breaking their pipes.

We honestly think two boxes of Mehegan's Bankers might be induced to influence even Grant to compassion in regard to the suffering Cubans.

We recommend the Bankers, and know whereof we affirm, for as we write we are consoling with the proud satisfaction of puffing one, and enjoy it hugely.—Norfolk Journal.

NON-EXPLOSIVE COMBINATION BURNING FLUID

THE CHEAPEST, BEST AND SAFEST ILLUMINATING AGENT IN

THE WORLD!!

No more Exploded Cans!—No more Exploded Lamps!
No more Smoke!—No more Grease!
No more Fires!!

EVERYBODY PREFERS IT AFTER GIVING IT A TRIAL!

IT costs less!—It lasts longer!—Gives a more Brilliant Light!—May be burned in hand lamps, without chimney.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

PATENT GLASS SUBMERGED

DOUBLE-ACTING FORCE PUMP.

SUBSTITUTE FOR A FIRE ENGINE.

THIS Pump will pump 20 gallons of water per minute, will never cut out the packing, has no friction, no water ever stands in its pipes to freeze, and is less liable to get out of order than any other pump now used. It can be set up in a short time by any ordinary mechanic.

The No. 2 pump for yard wells will be sold at from $20 to $30, capable of throwing 20 gallons of water per minute. The price of No. 2 for railroad stations, throwing 60 gallons per minute, will be given upon application.

Having the exclusive right to this pump for the states of North and South Carolina, and having established a factory for the manufacture of them at Wilson, N. C., I will receive orders for them at Wilson, and will ship them by Express C. O. D., or, if the money is sent me, by the regular freight. The number of feet in the depth of the well must be given in all cases

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important SAFEGUARD. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all the really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured so privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this State who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

P. F. PESCUD,
